EXCITING TALENT IN 2009/10

The cycling track looks set to sizzle at the Basslink Christmas Carnivals Series this year. A mix of Australian representatives, gold medallists, international champions and national heroes will be going around the tracks this season.

Already, there have been major signings with a huge Malaysian team competing, including Launceston Wheel winner Rizal Tisin.

Returning to defend their Cyclist of the Year titles are Fateha Musthapa and Glen O'Shea, along with World Junior Champion Amy Cure and silver medallist Peter Loft also confirmed.

Commonwealth Games Gold medallist Sean Finning, top Tasmanian rider Laura McCaughy and American Nationals Champions Gideon Massie and Cari Higgins will also be there.

Whilst all the cyclists mentioned are confirmed as attending, officials are still in talks with other high profile competitors, who have shown interest in coming down to the renowned Christmas Carnivals.
